

CPAC sent PACKing; no majority-minority ward created. Forrest County NAACP request new “honkie” jokes.

Forrest
County NAACP needs new “Honkie” jokes.

Today the Hattiesburg city council voted to adopt a modification of the original plan proposed by consulting firm Briggs and Watson. The majority voters were Council President Kim Bradley, Council Vice President Dave Ware, and Carter Carroll. Deborah Delgado voted for CPAC, which now stands for, “we will C you PAC that ridiculous plan up”. Henry Naylor voted for the majority-minority plan on which he had input.

Now the Forrest County NAACP, Clarence McGee, and the The Mississippi Center For Legal Services two bit, racist attorney Glenda Funchess can come up with some new material to malign more whites at future meetings. If you have any good “cracker” or “honkie” jokes, please send them to:
